Effective July 1, 2007, individual taxpayers who produce the biodiesel content of special fuel may qualify for the special fuel tax exemption certificate for biodiesel personal production.

An individual taxpayer qualifies for the exemption if the:

- individual produces the biodiesel content of the special fuel;
- special fuel contains at least 20 percent biodiesel;
- special fuel is only used for personal, noncommercial use and is not for resale.

If the above requirements are met the individual must:

- Register with the Department using this form;
- Provide an exemption certificate, valid for 5 years, before using the special fuel;
- File a report for the previous year by Jan. 20, of each year.

The maximum number of gallons of special fuel an individual may claim under this exemption is 2,000 divided by the average percentage volume of biodiesel in each gallon used.
