Important:

The taxpayer will be required to retain the receipts given by the Twenty-First Century Scholars Program indicating that a contribution has been made. These receipts should be maintained for a period of three years after the due date of the annual tax return where the credit was taken or three years after the date that return was filed, whichever is later.

General Information

Indiana taxpayers are allowed a credit against their Indiana state adjusted gross income tax liability for contributions to the Twenty-First Century Scholars Program. Detailed information about the scholarship program, registration, and administration may be obtained by calling the Twenty-First Century Scholars Program at (317) 233-2100.

Nonresident individuals with taxable income from Indiana sources who have contributed to the Twenty-First Century Scholars Program are allowed a credit against their Indiana state adjusted gross income tax liability on Form IT-40PNR.

This credit is a nonrefundable credit for individuals and corporations and has no carryover provision.
