

Instructions for Completing Terminal Operator's Inventory Ownership Schedule
Schedule 501I

Before You Begin:

Enter your company's identifying information as it is reflected on your Indiana Fuel Tax License.
(Be certain to complete a separate schedule for each fuel product type that you circle.)

Column Instructions:

- Columns 1 and 2: Enter the position holder's name, address, and Federal Employers Identification Number (FEIN).
- Column 3: Enter the position holder's actual beginning physical inventory for each particular product type.
- Column 4: Enter the position holder's net gallons received as subtotaled in Column 8 of the Terminal Operator's Schedule(s) of Receipts (Schedule 501A) for each particular product type.
- Column 5: Enter the position holder's net gallons disbursed as subtotaled in Column 9 of the Terminal Operator's Schedule(s) of Disbursements (Schedule 501B) for each particular product type.
- Column 6: Enter the position holder's stock gain/loss for each particular product type.
- Column 7: Enter the position holder's actual ending physical inventory for each particular product type.
- Column 8: Enter each position holder's capacity of their owned/leased storage space in the terminal for the reported product type.