Instructions for Completing Form ST-137RV

1. The ST-137RV exemption certificate is to be used only by those sellers possessing an Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicle Dealer License and an Indiana Department of Revenue Registered Retail Merchant Certificate. This exemption is only applicable when the RV or cargo trailer is physically transferred, from seller to buyer, within Indiana.
2. Only nonresidents of Indiana may claim this exemption. An individual must sign the Purchaser's Affidavit. If the individual is acting as an agent for the purchaser the signature must indicate this relationship. Example: Individual's Signature/Agent
3. The use of the ST-137RV exemption certificate pertains only to those sales that qualify as a cargo trailer or recreational vehicle as described by Indiana Statute IC 6-2.5-5-39.

IC 6-2.5-5-39 provides the definition of cargo trailer and recreational vehicle. Sec. 39 (a) As used in this section, "cargo trailer" means a vehicle: (1) without motive power; (2) designed for carrying property; (3) designed for being drawn by a motor vehicle; and (4) having a gross vehicle weight rating of at least two thousand two hundred (2,200) pounds. (b) As used in this section, "recreational vehicle" means a vehicle with or without motive power equipped exclusively for living quarters for persons traveling upon the highways. The term includes a travel trailer, a motor home, a truck camper with a floor and facilities enabling it to be used as a dwelling, and a fifth wheel trailer.

4. The selling dealer is required to provide the original ST-137RV exemption claim and bill of sale to the Indiana Department of Revenue for review within thirty (30) days of the delivery. If the RV is delivered out of state, a copy of the bill of lading is also required.

Questions regarding the use of this form should be directed to the Indiana Department of Revenue at (317) 232-3425.
