If a candidate becomes a candidate more than twenty-five (25) days before the nomination date, the candidate's committee must file a pre-convention campaign finance report no later than noon eighteen (18) days before the nomination date with the appropriate county election board. If a candidate becomes a candidate less than twenty-five (25) days before the nomination date, the candidate must file a post-convention campaign finance report not later than noon twenty (20) days after the nomination date with the appropriate county election board. If required to open a candidate's committee pursuant to Indiana's Campaign Finance Act, a candidate's committee must file a pre-election campaign finance report not later than NOON (prevailing local time), October 16, 2026, with the appropriate county election board.

The candidate's committee must also file a pre-election supplemental report no later than forty-eight (48) hours after the committee receives and accepts contributions from a person that total $1,000 or more during the period beginning October 10, 2026, and ending at 6 a.m. (prevailing local time) on November 1, 2026, with the appropriate county election board. If no such contribution is received and accepted, the candidate's committee is not required to file a supplemental report.

A person who fails to file a report with the county election board is subject to a civil penalty of $50 for each calendar day the report is late, with the afternoon of the final date for filing the report being calculated as the first day, for a maximum penalty of not more than $1,000, plus any investigative costs incurred and documented by the county election board.
