You may be required to maintain a daily log.
6. You shall not have contact with your victim or victim's family, without prior approval from your Parole Agent, and only under special supervised conditions.
7. You shall comply with any medical or mental health treatment or assessment and any other behavioral management stipulations as required by your parole agent. You will only participate in behavioral management programs that are approved by your parole agent. You shall not miss any appointments without the prior approval from your parole agent and or treatment providers. You will not discontinue taking any prescribed medication or start new prescriptions without the approval of your prescribing physician and you must notify your parole agent and treatment provider within three (3) working days of discontinuing the medication.
8. You shall not possess or view any sexually obscene materials. This includes but is not limited to materials that describe or portray human nudity, exploitation of children, consensual sex acts, nonconsensual sex acts involving force or violence, or any other material deemed to be sexually arousing including, but not limited to the following: hard copy (magazine, photo, etc.); internet websites; social networking sites; streaming services; photographs, drawings; audio / video tapes, CDs / DVDs / blu-rays, flash drives, cell phones or any digital storage device containing photographs displaying nudity, magazines, books, literature, writings or any other material deemed to be sexually arousing as determined by your Parole Agent. You may not enter any adult entertainment or strip clubs or adult novelty or bookstores that specialize in the distribution or sales of sexually orientated materials. You may not utilize sexually oriented telephone services or engage in sexual activity or contact for the exchange of money, property, or services. You shall not possess any sex toys, devices, or aids.

9. You shall not possess or access personal contact materials, including online dating and relationship websites and applications, magazines, newspapers, or other auditory, telephonic, electronic, or printed materials that contain information about persons who seek sexual contact with others. You shall not seek sexual contact with others by way of personal contact materials or electronic communications.
10. You are only permitted to possess electronic communication devices that have been approved by your Parole Agent. Approved devices are to have an approved reporting program installed with the cost being your responsibility. You shall not obtain any electronic communication devices without prior approval from your Parole Agent. You shall not use any electronic communication device with any type of internet connection at any location (including employment) without prior approval from your Parole Agent. You shall not use any social media to contact any person. If requested by your Parole Agent, you shall provide the call and text message logs from your electronic communication device.
11. You shall consent to the search of any electronic communication device found in your possession and immediately provide all associated usernames and passwords to the devices upon request from Parole staff. You shall also consent to the installation of any hardware or software systems on your electronic communication device(s) with internet capability, at your expense, to monitor internet usage. You shall not have access to passwords or stored data on any electronic communication device that is shared with another person. You are prohibited from using any application or method to password protect, hide, lock, or otherwise conceal from inspection any prohibited material. You are prohibited from using encryption software or deleting, erasing, or tampering with information on your electronic communication device that conceals any prohibited activity.
12. You shall not possess or use alcohol or any illegal controlled substance at any time.
13. You shall not frequent or be present at any establishment whose main business purpose is the selling, distribution, serving or drinking of alcoholic beverages or illegal controlled substances.
14. You shall submit to a substance abuse evaluation and follow all recommendations if requested.
15. You shall submit to breath (e.g. alco-sensor), urine, blood, saliva, and/or DNA testing as ordered by your parole agent.
16. You shall not drive any motorized or non-motorized vehicle, walk, or ride by or be close to any areas, public or private, where persons under the age of sixteen (16) are known to congregate or could be reasonably or are normally expected to congregate unless you have good cause, and no feasible alternative route is available. These areas include, but are not limited to, schools, public or private parks, playgrounds, beaches, swimming pools, theaters, day care centers without prior approval from your Parole Agent. You may be required to maintain a daily log.
17. You shall not hitchhike or pick up hitchhikers.
18. You are not permitted to leave your approved residence during curfew hours (9:00pm – 5:00am local time) unless you receive prior approval from your Parole Agent, who can adjust your curfew as necessary.
19. Without prior approval from your Parole Agent you shall not engage, establish, pursue, or maintain any sexual relationship with any person. You shall not associate with any person or family with minor children. You shall not stay overnight with any person away from your approved residence without prior approval from your Parole Agent.
20. You shall not use your employment to acquire new victims. Your parole agent may contact your employer at any time. You will not work in certain occupations that involve being in the private residences of others such as, but not limited to, door-to-door sales, soliciting, or delivery. Your parole agent must first approve any employment that you do engage in.
21. You will not attempt to persuade, whether by words or actions or both, a child/children to enter a vehicle, structure, or enclosed area, or to otherwise relocate their position or location.
22. You shall not join or be associated with any group which promotes activities involving children under sixteen (16) year of age, such as, but not limited to, church or religious youth groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Brownies, YMCA, YWCA, youth sports teams, public parks, etc.
23. You shall actively participate in offense specific mental health treatment program(s) approved and ordered by your parole agent at your own expense. You will contact the approved/designated provider within seven (7) days of release to parole to schedule an appointment unless an appointment was already scheduled prior to release on parole. Treatment is considered a behavioral management requirement of your parole and may include plethysmograph or polygraph testing or similar assessment/management tools. Termination from treatment or non-compliance with other required behavioral management requirements will be considered a violation of your parole release agreement. Subsequent treatment referrals, if any, will be at the direction of your parole agent. Should you request and be permitted to change treatment providers, stricter stipulations may be applied.
24. You shall consent to, participate in and complete periodic polygraph testing at the direction of your Parole Agent and make payment of any co-pays to the polygraph provider before all scheduled polygraph testing.
25. You shall report to your Parole Agent as frequently as instructed.
26. You shall be compliant with the Sex and Violent Offender Registry (SVOR) and related statutes which include but are not limited to residency restrictions per IC 35-42-4-11, employment per IC 35-42-4-10, residence address, vehicles, telephone number, e-mail and social media accounts and passwords. You are required to register with local SVOR office within seventy-two (72) hours of being released to Parole supervision and as instructed by your Parole Agent and the Registry Office.

27. You shall consent to the installation, maintenance, and operation of any electronic monitoring equipment in both your residence and on your person and follow the GPS Parolee Agreement and Contract associated with the Electronic Monitoring Program.
28. You shall not possess or operate an unmanned aerial vehicle (UAV) for the purpose of surveillance, following, contacting, or capturing images or recordings of one (1) or more other individuals.
